$40 \ \ Registration after May 1st

Passion:

Gripped for His Glory. Gripped by the gospel and driven by God's glory.

Plan:

Gather to Scatter. May 23rd-25th*

Three days of solid, intense, Biblical teaching.

We seek to apply the great commission to our lives in whatever context God calls us. Whether it is a middle school, McDonalds, or Malaysia, the gospel must be proclaimed.

Our God deserves to be praised by every tribe and tongue. That is why we gather for these three days.

The conference will be structured with main sessions and breakout sessions. The general sessions will include topics that will be vital for the vision of the entire conference. The breakout sessions will be a wide variety of specific topics. Students will be able to choose which breakout sessions they desire to attend.

Breakout sessions will include topics such as:

- Being a missionary at your college
- Engaging Muslims with the gospel
- Missionary Biographies
- Preparing to go overseas
- Q & A with missionaries
- Discerning your "call"
- God's passion for His glory
- Making your short term trips effective
- Missions and the family
- Praying for the nations
- Etc.

*After the conference there will be specific opportunities to serve in the community. We want to be doers of the word and not merely hearers. More to be announced.

People:

This conference is unique because it is lead by students for students. Uncharted 2011 includes a variety of speakers young and old. Speakers will include seasoned missionaries, theology students, pastors, church planters, and everyday great-commission believers. God is bringing together an incredible team to spread His salvation among the nations.

Main session speakers: Sean Perron, Trevor Komatzu, Dr. Bruce Carlton (biographies are at the end of the pamphlet)

Breakout session speakers: Wycliff, Gideons, International Missions Board, WEC, and more to be announced

Worship music lead by Sam Hearn

Participants:

This conference is for students who desire to pour out their lives for the gospel. The invitation is wide. The topics and material will be applicable for any follower of Christ. The target age is middle school through college. But we will accept anyone who is willing to register.

Place:

Hosted at Donelson Christian Academy. 300 Danyacrest Dr \ Nashville, TN.

Price:

$30 before May 1st

Main Session Speakers:

Sean Perron graduated from DCA in 2008. Many of his sermons can be found online at www.unearthedministries.org. He has been on many short-term missions trips in North America, worked with refugees in Louisville, spent a week in Vietnam in 2009, and is helping lead a three week mission's team to Uganda this July. He will be speaking on "What about those who never hear the gospel?" and "What does God love above all?"

Trevor Komatsu is from Maui Hawaii. He is a theology student at Boyce College and went to the Philippines last December. He comes from Kahului Baptist Church and is passionate about the gospel. He will be speaking on "Christ Crucified: A Life of Gospel." And "Christ Glorified: Satisfaction of the Nations."

Dr. Bruce Carlton is currently the Missions professor at Boyce College in Louisville KY. He has experience from over 20 years of cross-cultural missions experience throughout Asia with the International Missions Board (IMB). During his years in Asia, Dr. Carlton has been involved in church planting, primarily in areas with little or no Christian witness. He has written the book Amazing Grace: Lessons on Church-Planting Movements from Cambodia. Dr. Carlton is widely respected as an effective trainer and as an authority on church-planting movements.
